

SOQ 2023 – SERVICES

SERVICES: Architectural Buildings

Firm to demonstrate architectural experience for the design and/or construction of various building projects and associated site work, for new construction, remodels, additions and restorations; capability to provide 3-D modeling of facilities; basic services will vary by specific project, and may include, but not be limited to, reports and studies, project administration, design, utility coordination, permit assistance, bid assistance, construction documents, and construction contract administration. Projects may also include full construction management.

Minimum Qualifications

EMPLOYEE EXPERIENCE

A minimum of one (1) Nevada Registered Architect in responsible charge of the work is required. The Registered Architect in responsible charge of the work must have a minimum of five (5) years of experience in the design and construction of building projects with a construction value of over one (1) million dollars.